

Sense and Warn Operator (Afghanistan / Iraq) - Job Description:

- Operate Sense & Warn (SnW) computers in a Base Defense Operations Center on a Forward Operating Base, Afghanistan and maintain system equipment
- Understand reporting requirements and prepare reports as directed
- Copy and store Host Data, Threat Reports and WAVES files to Compact Disk (CD)
- Provide responsive and timely information to supported unit during IDF events
- Clean and maintain BDOC area and B-Hut
- Identify any system issues to FOB Team Lead/2IC
- Radio and telephone watch
- Help with downed equipment repair, or movement
- Provide assistance with tasks associated with their life support.
 - Examples would be: Assist with downloading air drops when they occur and distribution of mail when it arrives or unloading food/water or help establish billeting may be some of the things the contractor shall be asked to support.
- While on shift, one operator will be on call to assist with any work related duties outside the work station that may require additional personnel
- Update Maintenance Tracker and send to OST daily
- Participate in Battle Drill with entire JDOC/BDOC
- Data Collect WAVES/Host-logs
- Mule/Gator Maintenance (Before / After) and refuel each vehicle, as required
- Trouble shoot system faults, as required
- Assist Field Service Representatives (FSR's), Subject Matter Experts (SME's) and C-RAM system installers with updates and any installation requirements, as needed
- Ensure that the daily duty log is properly filled out and submitted
- Identify system deficiencies, make on-site operator level repairs and when appropriate request higher echelon maintenance.
- Perform Preventive Maintenance Checks and Services on C-RAM components.
- Monitor hardware and software component performance and identify system deficiencies.
- Perform coordination with the Base Defense Operations Center.
- Interface with SnW regional and theater personnel as required.
- Provide status reports (equipment, personnel, significant activity, and other operational data).

EDUCATION REQUIREMENT

- Minimum of High School Diploma or equivalent.
- Graduates of military Battle Staff Course, Advanced NCO Education System, officers' basic and/or officers advance course are desired.

EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENT

- Must have OCONUS deployment experience in the military or as a civilian contractor.
- Prior military experience is preferred.
- Experience with operating and maintaining DoD battle command hardware and software within an operational network is preferred.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

- Ability to spend time in and Huntsville, AL (training); and up to twelve months deployed to Afghanistan (operations)
- Must pass an employment drug and background check.
- Must have a DoD security clearance – with a minimum of 18 months remaining before re-investigation
- Must have, or can receive, US passport - with a minimum of 18 months remaining
- Must be able to complete a Maritime Physical and other DoD physical requirements. Routine and primary medical, vision, dental care and pharmaceutical services are not available in Afghanistan. See: forms at <http://www.cpms.osd.mil/expeditionary/cew-medical.aspx>